

The fire of 15th July 2010 and the following 3
½ year
restoration in a few pictures

Left & right the fire and the immediate
aftermath

Below: the interior after the fire

Left Oct.
2010 and
the
scaffold
finally goes
up

Right May 2011 the
exposed
medieval
roof plates
exposed

Oct. / Nov.
2011
and the
timbers
start to go back, 80%
are original

Left:
December
2011,
underpinning
the leaning
Victorian tower

Right:
Archaeological
investigations
prior to new drainage and
the new floor
early 2012

Left:
March 2012 and
the roof is
tiled

Right:
August
2012

Left:
Excavations
in the churchyard to lay gas and
water pipes
February
2013

Right: Yvonne and Rosalind
demonstrate carrying a sample pew
April 2013

Left: 27th July 2013 and the
congregation
return for the Patronal
Evensong

Right:
September 2013
and the new
organ is delivered by
Viscount Organs

9th February 2014

Clockwise from top left:
The Bishop of Chichester
Some of the congregation
A view from the gallery
Clergy L to R: Stephen Huggins Archdeacon Philip Jones, Kevin Mepham, Bishop Martin, The Dean of Battle, Jacqueline Kemp (Reader) & Angela
Cooke.

The catering team, L to R Andrea, Valerie, Yvonne, Sally
& Rosalind

