BENEFICE

Blessing our homes

As we are working our way through Epiphany, it is an old Church tradition, during this season, to bless our homes, churches, pet's homes, etc for the year ahead. This is traditionally done by chalking, with blessed chalk, the following above, on, or near the door: 20+C+M+B+26 & praying together:

"May Christ bless our home and remain with us throughout the new year. Christus mansionem benedicat, "May Christ bless the house."

The meaning of the inscription is as follows :

The numbers represent the year, the + represents Christ (Jesus) & the letters are for the Wise men who visited Jesus in his home. The names we associate the Wise Men with are Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar. However, these are also the first letters of the latin phrase, meaning 'Christ bless this house', as above.

If you want to give this a try, please take some of the blessed chalk home with you, following the service, chalk your homes and pray the prayer.

2026 will be a special year for Blackburn Diocese as it celebrates it's Centenary. Look out for news of upcoming events in the next few months.

CONFIRMATION NEWS

If you are planning to get confirmed this year, please see Cindy or Pippa, briefly, following today's services, to arrange dates and times for classes.

In Our Year's Mind for JANUARY

Barbara O'Riordan, Ruby Jean Wieck, Henry Cary Owtram, Nora Elizabeth Gorrall, , John William Barnes, Brian Moss, Gill Close, Margery Carter, Alan Maclachlan, Iain Michael Smith, William Desmond Corless, George Cragg

As we begin 2026, not only is it an important year for our Diocese but also St Mark's. Our vicar, Cindy isn't going anywhere but our curate, Pippa is taking charge of St Mark's, for the next few months, so she will be your first point of contact. We wish her well!

In addition, the good news is that St Mark's is now free of the £45,000 of historical debt that has been hanging over us since before Cindy's time!  The bad news is that the church gutters need some very costly repair work doing to them! If you would like to donate to the cost of this work, please speak to Rev'd Pippa. - Also speak to her if you have a fundraising idea!

Welcome to everyone who will be showcasing their talents at today's service, as we help our Mother's Union celebrate a very important anniversary. Congratulations to them!

Mothers' Union

AGM with Holy Communion and enrolment of a new member, at Ruth's House on Thursday 22nd January at 2p.m. Anyone interested in finding out about us, please join us for the afternoon. You will be very welcome.

PCC will meet this Monday, at 7pm at Ruth's. Thank you to Ruth for hosting.
