30th January 2026

Dear Friends,

Following Fran's announcement last week that she is retiring at the end of August, and receiving written confirmation this week that Richard has completed his curacy (with flying colours) and already knowing that Ian Williams will be joining the team in the summer, we are evidently approaching a time of change. This is therefore a good time to say three things. First, I personally have no intention of going anywhere anytime soon. Second, we are going to do everything in our power to recruit a new House for Duty priest (to replace Fran) as soon as we possibly can. The only obstacle to finding someone to take up post in the Autumn is the dearth of people out there who are likely to be looking for such a post. We must pray hard that we will find someone of the quality of Fran who will love South Shropshire as much as we all do.

Third, and most importantly, are the words of Psalm 46: "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. We will not fear though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam, and the mountains quake with their surging."

Rev Greg

Baby Emmanuelle

We are pleased to announce that baby Emmanuelle after many weeks in hospital following his birth is at last at home. Thanks to all those who have been praying.

Revd. Fergus Butler-Gallie

Rev Butler-Gallie will be at St George's Church, Pontesbury on Thursday 5th February at 7pm to provide a talk about his book, Twelve Churches: an unlikely history of the buildings that made Christianity, and the thoughts behind it.

With his trademark reverence and revelry, The Revd. Fergus Butler-Gallie travels through time and place to get to the heart of the religion he is so passionate about.

In this book, Twelve Churches, he takes us from Bethlehem and the birth of Christ some 2000-odd years ago, to the immediate present and future of Christianity. He brings together a Baptist Church in the segregationist American South with a medieval monastery in the heart of the Greek countryside; the Vatican - beautiful, imposing, vainglorious, the seat of Catholicism - with a sparse, tiny private church above the rocky coastline of Southern Japan.

It is a quest for a new people's history of Christianity, told through the stories of twelve churches scattered across the globe. Through a patchwork of interlinking and varied human stories, Butler-Gallie takes us on a physical and historical journey, exploring the role of hope, faith and beauty in Christianity, but also its fraught relationships with sex, violence and power.

The story of Christianity is, he shows, the story of our modern world: it's a story of who we should be, as well who we sometimes are.
