9th January 2026

Dear friends,

It's my first day back after holidays and so when Greg mailed me this morning to ask if I'd remembered that I was down to do the weekly thought, my first confused thought was to check what the date was, and then to try and scramble together my confused brain to write something half legible.

It might be a year of this. This time next year I will be somewhere - it won't be Minsterley, it might be a couple of miles down the road or it might be the other side of the country! It's going to be a bewildering time regardless and so do keep us in your prayers as we seek after God's will for us as a family.

We are fortunate that we follow a good God who cares for us and wants us to be in the "right place" so as to best serve him, but it can be unsettling while that all works itself out. The beginning of the old poem by Minnie Louise Hoskins provides a helpful steer:

*And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year:
"Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown".
And he replied:
"Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God.
That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way".*

Meditation

Please note that there will be no service of Meditation this month. We will be starting again in February at Longden Church on the 8th at 7 p.m.

Revd. Fergus Butler-Gallie

Rev Butler-Gallie will be at St George's Church, Pontesbury on the 5th February at 7pm to provide a talk about his book, Twelve Churches: an unlikely history of the buildings that made Christianity, and the thoughts behind it.

With his trademark reverence and revelry, The Revd. Fergus Butler-Gallie travels through time and place to get to the heart of the religion he is so passionate about.

In this book, Twelve Churches, he takes us from Bethlehem and the birth of Christ some 2000-odd years ago, to the immediate present and future of Christianity. He brings together a Baptist Church in the segregationist American South with a medieval monastery in the heart of the Greek countryside; the Vatican - beautiful, imposing, vainglorious, the seat of Catholicism - with a sparse, tiny private church above the rocky coastline of Southern Japan.

It is a quest for a new people's history of Christianity, told through the stories of twelve churches scattered across the globe. Through a patchwork of interlinking and varied human stories, Butler-Gallie takes us on a physical and historical journey, exploring the role of hope, faith and beauty in Christianity, but also its fraught relationships with sex, violence and power.

The story of Christianity is, he shows, the story of our modern world: it's a story of who we should be, as well who we sometimes are.
