The Friends of Castle Acre Church: Charity Number 803210

The Church and Our Heritage

The Friends of Castle Acre Church is an independent charity. It was founded in 1990 to help care for St James the Great, the parish church at the heart of the village.

A church has stood here since the 12th century. Today's building holds many treasures—the wine-glass pulpit, the 15th-century font cover, and the richly decorated rood screen, among others.

But caring for such a historic building is costly. For centuries, parishioners carried this responsibility. Today, we depend on the wider community—people who may or may not attend services but who still value this beautiful place and want it preserved.

With your support, we can help keep St James in good repair so it continues to enhance Castle Acre and inspire future generations.

As a Friend you will

- become part of a community of people who care deeply about Castle Acre Church, and wish to preserve this historic landmark for future generations.
- contribute to essential repairs and restoration (together we've raised over £200,000 since 2000).
- be invited to a lively programme of events throughout the year.
- stay connected with regular email updates about the Friends and the church.
- be invited to take part in our Annual Friends Meeting.
