BIBLE READING NOTES

Daily Bread Bible reading notes provide the reader with a passage from the Bible to read, a prayer and a thought for the day following on from the daily reading. They are a very popular way of helping us to read and understand more about our faith. It also gives encouragement and teaching.

Would you like to receive a free copy each quarter of the year? Speak to myself or Louise. I'm at St Andrew's most Wednesday mornings or St Peter's on a Sunday.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Carol Rawson

STAMPS

Many thanks for all the wonderful stamps you have been giving to Jane for the Animal rescue centres. We collect them all year round. Please bring to either church. Thank you!

LETTER FROM REVD LOUISE

Dear Friends,

When I was at school, I always dreaded that moment when we would have to write a poem! I was a diligent student but somehow writing poetry always flummoxed me. This made me a bit reluctant when it came to studying poetry when I was studying English Literature in 6th Form (Years 12-13). However, when you think about it, poetry is everywhere. In the catchy jingles of an advertising campaign... 'Opal fruits, made to make your mouth water'; 'A finger of fudge is just enough...' and so on. We listen to poetry when we listen to songs on the radio and how often do we receive cards (Valentines, birthday and sympathy) which has a little poem in it? This isn't high culture but it's amazing how well it gets the sentiment across. Similarly, when we sing in church we are singing poetry. Some hymn poems were written nearly 300 years ago, (Love divine, all love's excelling), some in the 1980s, (Hands that flung stars into space/to cruel nails surrendered) but in singing the carefully crafted words, we absorb the truths expressed in them.

In poetry, words can express thoughts and feelings which can't just be explained. The Bible is full of poetry. Chiefly in the book of Psalms which was poetry to be sung in the synagogues and the Temple in Jerusalem. But also, in some of the ideas the writers were trying to express. 'In the beginning was the Word' (John 1.1), which we read at Christmas, is Greek philosophy but it is also profound and heart-stirring poetry. 'Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my Spirit' (Luke 23.46) are the words from a poem (Psalm 31.5) which Jesus quoted whilst dying on the cross: words which gave him comfort in his darkest hour. Words which can help change despair into hope, guilt into freedom.

Over the years, as I have read more poetry, some poems have become very dear to me. One of these was written by the 17th century clergyman, George Herbert. In this poem, George imagines a conversation between an uncomfortable Christian and Jesus (Love). Jesus invites him to share a meal, to draw close to him. But the man is nervous, ashamed, unworthy. Jesus is insistent. He has given his life on the cross out of love for the world. He doesn't invite us to grovel, to just be his servants. He invites us to share a meal as his friends. This is poetry which expresses a deep truth and draws us into the encounter of the man and Jesus. And through it we perhaps see our personal tussle between doubt and faith, between shame and forgiveness, between fear and love.

You may have to read the poem a few times to get the hang of it. Reading it out loud or listening to it on YouTube, can help (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=E5Q93x6OHNc>)

Love

LOVE bade me welcome; yet my soul drew back,
 Guilty of dust and sin.

But quick-eyed Love, observing me grow slack
 From my first entrance in,
Drew nearer to me, sweetly questioning
 If I lack'd anything.

'A guest,' I answer'd, 'worthy to be here:'
 Love said, 'You shall be he.'

'I, the unkind, ungrateful? Ah, my dear,
 I cannot look on Thee.'

Love took my hand and smiling did reply,
 'Who made the eyes but I?'

'Truth, Lord; but I have marr'd them: let my shame
 Go where it doth deserve.'

'And know you not,' says Love, 'Who bore the blame?'
 'My dear, then I will serve.'

'You must sit down,' says Love, 'and taste my meat.'
 So I did sit and eat.

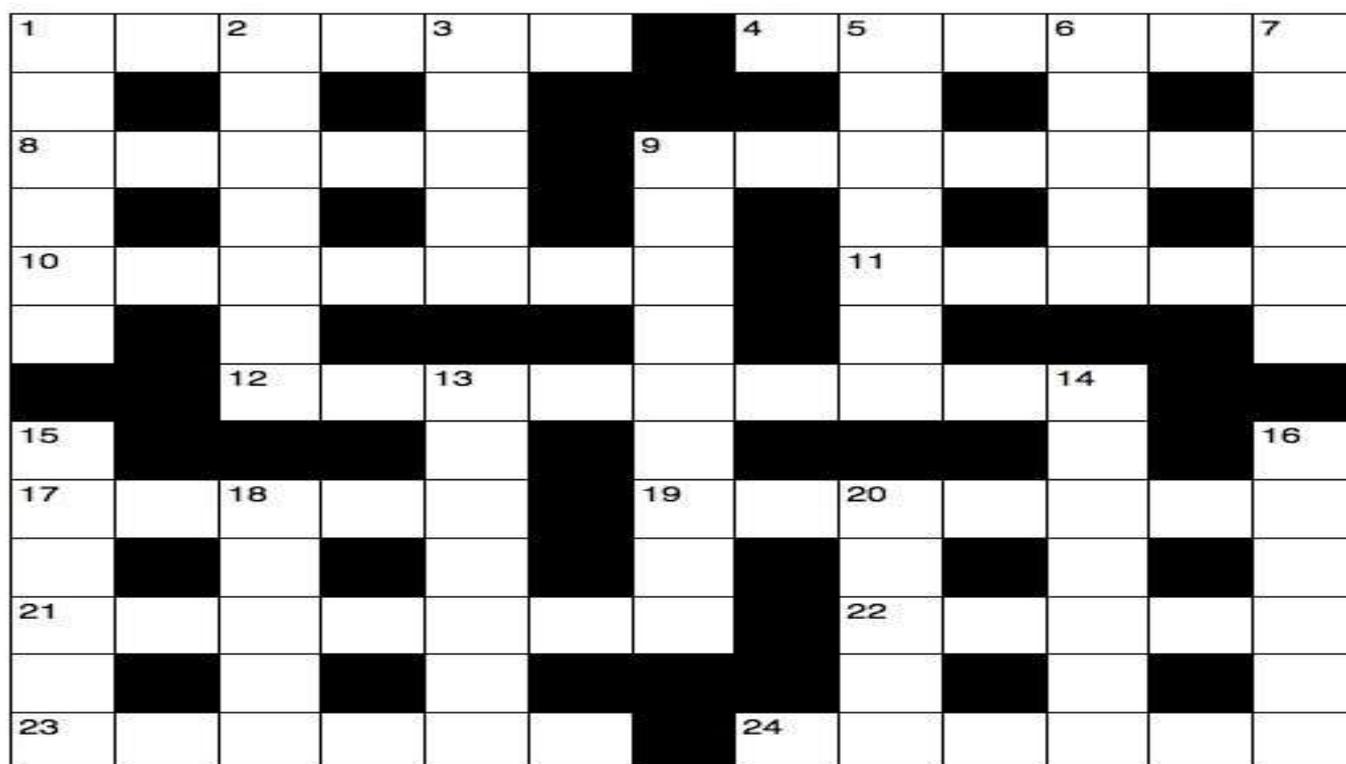

George Herbert (1593-1633)

Within the depths of this poem is the invitation Jesus offers time and time again to all of us, weak, troubled, sinful people. Come and eat; share my life!

May this Lent be a time of drawing close to the one who has loved us to death. May we each come to know his new life, forgiveness and hope.

God bless you,
With love,
Louise.x

LENT STUDY GROUPS

As is our normal practice, we will have study groups meeting during Lent. The Diocese has produced some materials which seem good to use. They come from a suggestion that we spend 100 days seeking God's guidance and provision in unsettling and changing times in the world, and in society.

There will be two groups each week with the same material being covered at each group:

Mondays 2-3.30pm in St Peter's beginning on Feb 23rd and concluding on March 30th

Tuesdays 8-9.30pm on Zoom, beginning on Feb 24th and concluding on March 31st

If you would like to attend, please let Louise know so we can make sure you have all the materials.

If you don't normally attend any fellowship or study groups, why not give this a try? We are not at all intimidating and we don't expect you to know lots of things about the Christian faith. The aim is to be encouraged in our faith and to be a supportive presence. And, hopefully, to learn some useful things on the way through!

GIVING

Thank you very much indeed for those who responded to our item on giving in last month's magazine. We have had a small number of congregation members who have decided to give by standing order or via the Parish Giving Scheme.

A quick reminder if you are still thinking about it...

Giving by Standing Order. You could do this weekly, monthly or quarterly. We are particularly appreciative of this form of regular giving, and especially if you are unable to attend church regularly.

The church banking details are as follows:

Sort code 20-79-73

Account number 90498092

Account name: The Parochial Church Council of the Parish of South Shoebury

Your bank should be able to help you to set this up.

If you are a taxpayer, please don't give this way as we are unable to reclaim the tax which the government gives us via Gift Aid! Please consider giving via the Parish Giving Scheme. This is an excellent scheme which reclaims tax for us every month and makes our admin much simpler. This QR code will take you to their website, or please use the website information below.

<https://www.parishgiving.org.uk/givers/howtogive>

LEGACIES We have been hugely blessed by those who have remembered us in their Wills. If you are reviewing your Will, please consider leaving a percentage or sum towards the life of the church. The legal name for the parish is 'The Ecclesiastical Parish of South Shoebury'.

Thank you all so much for your generosity.
Louise.

Electoral Roll Revision

Each year we revise our membership list. If you have attended St Andrew's and/or St Peter's and have been baptised, you are welcome to have your name included on our role. If you signed a form last year you do not need to do so this year. If not, please ask for a form at church! The revision of the role takes place from March 8th-22nd.

Congratulations

to Brian and Jennifer Whymark as they celebrate 65 years of married life, on March 18th. They were married at St Paul's Bentley Common, near Chelmsford and they give thanks for the blessings of their family and the long life they have shared together.

What we sing shapes what we believe

Singing has always been a feature of Christian worship. At the end of the Last Supper, Jesus and His followers sang a hymn (Mark 14:26). As Jews they had the Psalms as part of their worship. Along with Christians at all times and places, every Sunday we have hymns and spiritual songs. They do such a lot to shape what we believe. Sermons may move us to think about one topic in particular but the moment soon passes. Well-crafted lyrics and catchy tunes tend to play on in our thoughts long after we have left the building. We may find that we are humming and remembering them while in the shower or queueing in ASDA! Singing together has a way of shaping our faith like nothing else.

I suggest that the best worship songs are those that:

- Direct our attention to God
- Remind us of what we find in the Bible
- Build up our faith
- Help us to ask: if these lyrics are true, how will that change me?

In our services in South Shoebury, songs are chosen carefully to complement the season or readings for that week. But some of us might also listen to a wider range of Christian music at home or in the car. I suggest that we ought not be afraid to ask questions:

- a. Does this song use 'I' or 'Me' more than it speaks of God? Who is at the centre?
- b. Do we understand what we are singing? What does 'ineffably sublime' mean? Or 'Be all else but naught to me, save that Thou art?'
- c. Since congregational worship is what we do together, what do our fellow worshippers think the words mean? That's a good question for over tea and biscuits afterwards! If you don't get any clear answers from others, why not ask Louise?
- d. Is the tune helpful or does it get in the way?
- e. What difference might this song make to how we live or speak about God?

Today, there is an abundance of Christian 'worship' music available. Charles Wesley, one of the greatest hymnwriters of any age, wrote classics like 'Hark! The herald angels sing' and 'Love Divine'. Although churches worldwide frequently sing around 10 of his most beloved hymns, Wesley actually wrote over 6,500 songs - most of which are now never sung because, frankly, they're not very good. If the great Wesley had such a low hit rate, maybe that is a helpful reminder to value the very best in our worship music and to take time to ask ourselves: how is this song building my faith and what does it mean?

Southend Foodbank Update for March 2026

The foodbank provides emergency food & practical support to people in their hardest moments. How can WE help?

1. Thank you to everyone who places items in the Foodbank collection boxes at both St Andrew's and St Peter's. In addition, you can make food donations at Shoeburyness & Thorpe Bay Baptist Church in Thorpedene Gardens every Thursday 12.30pm - 2.30pm. There is also a box for food donations just past the tills at ASDA. Please don't give perishable goods, such as fresh fruit and veg.
2. Each week the team publishes a list of the most urgent needs - although some items often appear week after week. Here's a list of what the Foodbank is currently running low on:
 - Tinned sweetcorn
 - Tinned tomatoes
 - Instant mashed potato
 - Pasta sauce
 - Tinned mince and onions
3. For anyone with a smartphone, there is an app called "Bank the Food". Once downloaded, add Southend Foodbank where prompted and they will update you weekly on the latest urgent needs (but there is no pressure at all to give).
4. Sadly, the Foodbank is having to close four of its church-based Distribution Centres from the end of January 2026 in order to live within available funds. However, the need for the Foodbank's work is as heavy as ever. So, let's keep supporting it with our donations. Christians from Shoebury churches (including ours!) generously serve as Foodbank volunteers. Let's keep all those involved in our prayers.

ST ANDREWS BUILDING PROJECT

The work in St Andrew's is going along steadily. The font is now in its new position and will make baptisms much easier without trying to cram godparents and family into the tower!

The asbestos has been removed. This has delayed us a bit but the builders expect the rest of the project to progress as planned.

At time of writing (Feb 16th) we anticipate the wiring to be fitted this week which will provide power for the new heaters. Soon the painters and decorators will arrive to spruce up the existing floorboards and the pews.

We hope to be back in church by the end of March!

We are planning an official reopening and welcome day for neighbours and friends on April 25th. We hope many will come and have a look at the work we have done but also have chance to find out about other church and community activities which take place in our church and halls.

This shows the top of the font strapped and ready for moving to its new position

And this is the font in its new position... it will have a fresh coat of paint once the work is complete.

MARCH

Take part in a local litter pick or beach clean during The Great British Spring Clean (Friday 13–Sunday 29 March), the nation's biggest mass-action environmental campaign. Litter picking benefits the environment by removing rubbish that can be hazardous for wildlife and helps bring people together. See if there's a litter pick in your local area or consider organising your own – after church on Sunday or with a youth group for example. Pray for your local area as you do the litter pick and ask God for opportunities to share why you are doing it. Saturday April 25th

Volunteers Wanted!

We are planning to hold a re-opening celebration on April 25th. The plan is to open St Andrew's to local residents and visitors once the building project is complete and reveal the new look St Andrew's.

In addition, the hall will be used to showcase all the services, activities, groups, clubs and community events that form part of Church life.

It's still at the planning stage but we will need volunteers on the day to make it a success. There will be many opportunities to help, such as helping to set up the event, helping with refreshments or simply welcoming our visitors.

If you are able to help out on the day please contact Louise or Lisa Thomas on 07825 329665 or Steve Thomas on 07917 162747 or see Melanie Snell in Church.
