Jesus is the Light of the World. The Gospel, the Good News, is like a beacon that draws us to Jesus - no lesser light will do. We in turn are called to pass his light on to those who do not know Christ.

MUSIC TODAY

Before the Gospel: 'Alleluia, alleluia ...'

Offertory Hymn: 629 'Thou whose almighty ...'

Communion Hymn: 179 'Lord Jesus Christ'

Final Hymn: 253 'O worship the King'

NOTES ON THE READINGS

The First Reading

Faith shows itself in the light of good works.

The Responsorial Psalm

Those who show their faith through the way they live are blessed by God.

The Second Reading

Being a Christian is not about knowing anything in particular - it is about knowing someone, the crucified and risen Christ.

The Gospel Reading

Our Lord reminds us of our important role in the world - to bring the gospel to all people.
