HERE'S HOW IT WORKS...

SUNDAY ENTRIES

Sunday entries (left hand page) highlight certain aspects of church life or a national or global campaign. These are followed by suggestions for daily prayer.

PRINT TO GO

The Prayer Diary is a booklet to be used daily. You can print off a week to a sheet of A4 and carry it with you.

ANGLICAN COMMUNION

The Anglican Communion encompasses a rich array of countries (165!) and cultures. This Anglican Diary enables us to feel connected in prayer to the Archbishops, Bishops and our fellow Christians all over the globe.

“ Prayer can sometimes feel puzzling when we believe God already knows every thought and holds the world in His hands.

Yet I find, in my own praying, I am not informing God but seeking to be in relationship with Him. Prayer is less like submitting a request form and more like a living conversation with someone who loves me.

A phrase often repeated in Scripture is ‘draw near to God and He will draw near to you’ - for me, that is the essence of a prayerful relationship with God.

As a churchwarden and Local Lay Leader, I bring both practical concerns and deeper hopes - even praying the church roof will be repaired in time despite persistent rain!

Again and again, prayer becomes the place where I put what is in my hands into God’s hands, and ‘draw near to Him’.

Past introductions to this prayer diary have reminded us prayer is not a competition but a conversation, and I recognise how much I am still learning, that listening is part of the conversation too.

The prayer diary from the Diocese of Truro invites us into a shared conversation as we lift places and people before God. Some names and communities I know well, along with their stories, needs and joys. Others are unfamiliar to me. Yet whether known or unknown, I am invited simply to hold them before God, trusting He knows them fully and loves them deeply.

There are times when prayers seem unanswered - and this is where I lean on my faith. Scripture never hides this struggle. Jesus prayed in Gethsemane for the cup to pass, and Paul prayed for his thorn to be removed; both remained.

I am learning prayer is not always answered in the way I ask, sometimes the response is yes, sometimes no, sometimes wait. The Bible promises not every outcome will change, but God will be with us.

So I continue to pray for our churches, our communities, and all entrusted to us - not because I control the outcome, but because we belong to God and to one another.

Whether for a leaking roof, a familiar neighbour, or a name I have never heard before, I keep lifting each one before Him, trusting none are ever outside His care or forgotten in His sight. ”

SUNDAY 29 MARCH PALM SUNDAY

Lord Jesus, our friend, like those in the bible who waved palm leaves, may we too rejoice in You.

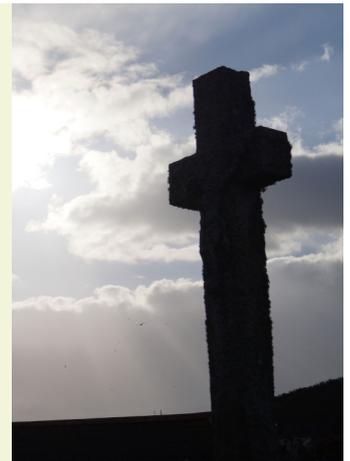

May the same spirit of those original Palm Sunday celebrations, lift our hearts and morale today.

When we walk along our streets, may we bring joy to all we see. May we be inspired by Your life and strive to inspire others.

May we wake every day, knowing how privileged we are to have You and Your love in our lives.

Let us always remember the daily hope You have promised us, and may we uplift others with that same hope.

Amen.

SUNDAY 14 JUNE INCLUSIVITY IN THE CHURCH

Father, You created a world of staggering diversity. Encourage us, in our daily lives to cherish difference, to be curious, and seek ways of understanding one another. Help us not to be fearful of those who are different from us but open our minds to Your desire for all of humanity to live in relationship with You. Give us strength and wisdom to stand with those facing persecution and discrimination, remembering Jesus died to save everyone, not only those like us.

In Your Name we pray. Amen.

SUNDAY 21 JUNE PETER TIDE ORDINATIONS

Father God,

We pray for the priesthood of all believers. Help us to stand firm in the gospel and boldly share Your love and good news with those who are in need. Help us to proclaim Your hope to a weary world.

We pray for people in our community who are on the margins of society and church: the sick, the lonely, those experiencing homelessness and poverty. Jesus, help us to love as You love and point people to Your steadfast hope. May we walk humbly alongside the lost and weary, growing together in relationship with you and one another. Amen.
