

ST MARY MAGDALENE NORTH OCKENDON

St Mary Magdalene in North Ockendon invites visitors on 21 March to explore its rich history, including centuries-old worship, bell-ringing traditions, and links to the Poyntz family and William Tyndale. Guests can enjoy organ music, view historic architecture, and learn about botanist William Coys. The churchyard offers peaceful reflection, and a walking route leads to Thames Chase. The venue also welcomes those seeking a community space.

SAT. 21 MARCH 10:00 - 16:00

10:00 - 12:00 Church bell ringing

10:30 - 13:00 Handbells “have a go”

12:00 - 14:00 Organ played (choose a hymn)

14:00 Handbell demonstration “North Ockendon Handbell Ringers”

And, at any time during the day...

Tour the church and site

Pick up a map to walk to Thames Chase

DISCOVER HAVERING'S “HIDDEN GEM”

Supported by Havering London as part of

A GOOD LIFE DAY