

St Martin's Barholm-with-Stowe

May Services

3rd May at 6pm

We extend a warm welcome to share with you the tradition of Evening Prayer from the Book of Common Prayer (BCP) 1662.

This traditional service led by our Rector of the seven villages Fr Aran, is the treasure of our worship here and includes scripture readings, prayers and singing of well-known and traditional hymns, accompanied by our Organist, Julia.

This meditative and reflective service lasts for around 45 minutes, giving space to pause for a moment in the very special atmosphere of St Martin's Church as the Evening draws to a close.

31st May at 9am
