

All Saints Edingthorpe

Churchyard Nature
Conservation Gallery

All Saints Edingthorpe – Nature Conservation

Summer 2025

Birds-foot Trefoil
(Lotus corniculatus) –
Bacon & Eggs

Rustic Soldier Beetle
(Cantharis rustica)

Mother of Pearl (Patina ruralis) on nettle

Red Admiral (Vanessa Atalanta) hgyy: """"

All Saints Edingthorpe – Nature Conservation

Summer 2025

Red Tail Bumblebee
(Bombus lapidaries)
on Ragwort

Speckled Bush Cricket
(Leptophyes punctatissima)

Gatekeeper (Pyronia Tithonus) on Bramble

Speckled Bush Cricket

All Saints Edingthorpe – Nature Conservation

Grass Cutting August 2025

All Saints Edingthorpe – Nature Conservation

Grass Raking August 2025

The North East Norfolk Conservation Volunteers with the All Saints Churchyard Officer

All Saints Edingthorpe – Nature Conservation

Grass Raking August 2025

Grass raking in progress.

All Saints Edingthorpe – Nature Conservation

Autumn 2025

Autumn sunshine

Parasol (Macrolepiota procera)

All Saints Edingthorpe – Nature Conservation

Winter 2026

Church in the snow. ©Caroline Engledow

Conservation area in the snow.

All Saints Edingthorpe – Nature Conservation

Winter 2026

The crab apple in the NW corner of the churchyard is providing welcome food to birds. There were 5 blackbirds and a robin feeding there just before this photograph was taken but one caught on film later.

All Saints Edingthorpe – Nature Conservation

Left: A marmalade hoverfly Episyrphus balteatus on common snowdrop Galanthus nivalis Flore Pleno in the churchyard.

Right: snowdrops in the north east corner of the churchyard.

Winter 2026

All Saints Edingthorpe – Nature Conservation

Spring 2026

Daffodils in the spring sunshine.

All Saints Edingthorpe – Nature Conservation

Spring 2026

Planted on 02 March

A new tree to replace the fallen beech. This a Small Leaved Lime (Tilia cordata 'Greenspire').

In leaf 23 May

All Saints Edingthorpe – Nature Conservation

Daffodils and Bluebells

Spring 2026

All Saints Edingthorpe – Nature Conservation

Butterflies in the Springtime

Spring 2026

All Saints Edingthorpe – Nature Conservation

Spring 2026

Pignut (Conopodium majus) in the conservation area.

Compost bin and dead hedge for the benefit of humans and wildlife.