Rural Missions, a charity that helps rural village churches think about mission in their community will be leading two information and discussion sessions at 7.30pm on Mondays 6 and 20 July.

It would be so good to have both life-long residents of Crich and those who are new to the area come to learn, encourage and discuss how we can more effectively share Jesus with our village.

PLEASE PUT THE DATES IN YOUR DIARY 😊

4th Sunday Communion

On these Sundays there is:

a children's activity in the Welcome Room during the sermon
prayer for healing after receiving communion

From July, there will also be the opportunity for personal testimony. If God has been speaking into your life or doing something you can share, please come ready to tell us about it briefly! 😊
