

Holy Communion

All Hallows Church

Twelfth Sunday after Trinity

23 August 2026

A warm welcome to our worship this morning. Whether a regular or a visitor, we are delighted to have you with us, and hope that you will enjoy the service.

All you need to follow the service is contained in this leaflet. For a large print, ask the person who gave you this leaflet. Please join in the responses in bold.

We serve refreshments before the service, feel free to take your drink to your pew for the start of the service.

We don't take cash collection during the service, however we welcome donations towards our mission and ever increasing maintenance costs. These can be left in the collection plate or be made using our contactless card machine at the entrance. Alternatively you can scan the QR code on the last page.

Hymn

1 Christ is made the sure foundation,
Christ the Head and corner-stone,
chosen of the Lord, and precious,
binding all the church in one,
Holy Sion's help for ever,
and her confidence alone.

2 All that dedicated city,
dearly loved of God on high,
in exultant jubilation
pours perpetual melody,
God the One in Three adoring
in glad hymns eternally.

Doxology Laud and honour to the Father,
laud and honour to the Son,
laud and honour to the Spirit,
ever Three, and ever One,

consubstantial, co-eternal,
while unending ages run.

Urbs beata Jerusalem (Latin, before 9th century) tr. John Mason Neale (1818–1866)

Greeting

Minister In the name of the Father,
and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

Minister The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Words of welcome may be said.

Prayer of Preparation

All Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hidden:
cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit,
that we may perfectly love you,
and worthily magnify your holy name;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession

Deacon Brothers and sisters,
as we prepare to celebrate,
let us call to mind our sins.

All God of mercy,
we acknowledge that we are all sinners.
We turn from the wrong
that we have thought and said and done,
and are mindful of all that we have failed to do.
For the sake of Jesus, who died for us,
forgive us for all that is past,
and help us to live each day in the light of Christ our Lord. Amen.

Absolution

Minister The almighty and merciful Lord
grant you pardon and forgiveness of all your sins,

time for amendment of life,
and the grace and strength of the Holy Spirit.

All Amen.

Gloria

All sing    Glory to God, we give you thanks and praise;
of heav'nly joy and earthly peace we sing.
We worship you, to you our hearts we raise,
Lord God, almighty Father, heav'nly King.

Lord Jesus Christ, the Father's only Son,
you bore for us the load of this world's sin.
O Lamb of God, your glorious vict'ry won,
receive our pray'r, grant us your peace within.

Alone, O Christ, you only are the Lord,
at God's right hand in majesty most high:
who with the Spirit worshipped and adored:
with all the heav'nly host we glorify.

Frederick E Le Grice (1911-1992) © 1990 Kevin Mayhew Ltd; HymnQuest ID: 13993

Collect

The president introduces a period of silent prayer with the words 'Let us pray' or a more specific bidding. The Collect is said.

God of constant mercy,
who sent your Son to save us:
remind us of your goodness,
increase your grace within us,
that our thankfulness may grow,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

First reading Exodus 1.8 - 2.10

Now, a new king arose over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. He said to his people, 'Look, the Israelite people are more numerous and more powerful than we. Come, let us deal shrewdly with them, or they will increase and, in the event of war, join our enemies and fight against us and escape from the land.' Therefore they set taskmasters over them to oppress them with forced labour. They built supply cities, Pithom and Rameses, for Pharaoh. But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread, so that the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites. The Egyptians became ruthless in imposing tasks on the Israelites, and made their lives bitter with hard service in mortar and brick and in every kind of field labour. They were ruthless in all the tasks that they imposed on them.

The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other Puah, 'When you act as midwives to the Hebrew women, and see them on the birthstool, if it is a boy, kill him; but if it is a girl, she shall live.' But the midwives feared God; they did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but they let the boys live. So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them, 'Why have you done this, and allowed the boys to live?' The midwives said to Pharaoh, 'Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwife comes to them.' So God dealt well with the midwives; and the people multiplied and became very strong. And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families. Then Pharaoh commanded all his people, 'Every boy that is born to the Hebrews you shall throw into the Nile, but you shall let every girl live.'

Now a man from the house of Levi went and married a Levite woman. The woman conceived and bore a son; and when she saw that he was a fine baby, she hid him for three months. When she could hide him no longer she got a papyrus basket for him, and plastered it with bitumen and pitch; she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river. His sister stood at a distance, to see what would happen to him.

The daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her attendants walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to bring it. When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying, and she took pity on him. 'This must be one of the Hebrews' children,' she said. Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, 'Shall I go and get you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?' Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Yes.' So the girl went and called the child's mother. Pharaoh's daughter said to her, 'Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give you your wages.' So the woman took the child and nursed it. When the child grew up, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and she took him as her son. She named him Moses, 'because', she said, 'I drew him out of the water.'

This is the word of the Lord.

All

Thanks be to God.

Second reading Romans 12.1-8

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God – what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgement, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Hymn

1 There is a Redeemer, Jesus, God's own Son, precious Lamb of God, Messiah, Holy One.

Chorus Thank you, O my Father, for giving us your Son, and leaving your Spirit till the work on earth is done.

2 Jesus my Redeemer, Name above all names,
precious Lamb of God, Messiah, O for sinners slain:

3 When I stand in glory I will see his face, and there I'll serve my King for ever in that holy place.

Gospel reading Matthew 16.13-20

All say Alleluia!

Deacon Welcome with meekness the implanted word that has the power to save your souls.

All say Alleluia!

Deacon      Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
                 according to Matthew.

All say      Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' He said to them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Simon Peter answered, 'You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.' And Jesus answered him, 'Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.' Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

                 This is the Gospel of the Lord.
All              Praise to you, O Christ.

Sermon

After the Sermon silence may be kept.

Creed

Minister      Let us declare our faith in God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

All              We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is,
                 seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again

in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is worshipped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

Minister Let us pray to the Lord.

This response may be included:

Lord, in your mercy,
All hear our prayer.

And at the end:

Merciful Father,
All accept these prayers
for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Peace

Minister God has called us to live in peace.

cf 1 Corinthians 7.17

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
All And also with you.

Deacon Let us share with one another a sign of peace.

We share with one another a sign of Christ's peace.

Preparation of the table

Hymn

- 1 All for Jesus! All for Jesus!
This our song shall ever be;
for we have no hope, nor Saviour,
if we have not hope in thee.
- 2 All for Jesus! thou wilt give us
strength to serve thee hour by hour;
none can move us from thy presence
while we trust thy love and pow'r.
- 3 All for Jesus! at thine altar
thou wilt give us sweet content;
there, dear Saviour, we receive thee
in thy holy sacrament.
- 4 All for Jesus! thou hast loved us,
all for Jesus! thou hast died,
all for Jesus! thou art with us,
all for Jesus, glorified!
- 5 All for Jesus! All for Jesus!
This the Church's song shall be;
till at last the flock is gathered
one in love, and one in thee.

W. J. Sparrow Simpson, 1887

Table prayer

Minister Blessed be God,
who feeds the hungry,
who raises the poor,
who fills our praise.

All Blessed be God forever.

Eucharistic prayer

Minister The Lord is here.

All His spirit is with us.

Minister Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Minister Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give thanks and praise.

Minister It is truly right and just,
our duty and our salvation,
always and everywhere to give you thanks,
holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

From sunrise to sunset this day is holy,
for Christ has risen from the tomb
and scattered the darkness of death with light that will not fade.

This day the risen Lord
walks with your gathered people,
unfolds for us your word,
and makes himself known in the breaking of the bread.

And though the night will overtake this day
you summon us to live in endless light,
the never-ceasing sabbath of the Lord.

And so, with choirs of angels
and with all the heavenly host,
we proclaim your glory
and join their unending song of praise:

All sing Holy, holy, holy is the Lord,
holy is the Lord God almighty.
Holy, holy, holy is the Lord,
holy is the Lord God almighty,
who was, and is and is to come.
Holy, holy, holy is the Lord.

Minister We praise and bless you, loving Father,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord;
and as we obey his command,
send your Holy Spirit,
that broken bread and wine outpoured
may be for us
the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died
he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you.

He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:

Take, eat;
this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

When supper was ended
he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you,
gave it to them and said:

Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it,
in remembrance of me.

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did,
in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice
made once for all upon the cross.

Bringing before you
the bread of life and cup of salvation,
we proclaim his death and resurrection
until he comes in glory.

Deacon Great is the mystery of faith.

All sing Jesus, Jesus, Jesus is the Lord!
Jesus is the Lord God almighty.
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus is the Lord!
Jesus is the Lord God almighty,
who was, and is, and is to come.
Jesus, Jesus, Jesus is the Lord.

Minister Lord of all life,
help us to work together for that day
when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth.

Look with favour on your people,
gather us in your loving arms
and bring us with [N and] all the saints to feast at your table in heaven.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

all honour and glory are yours,
O loving Father, for ever and ever.

All            Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Minister    With confidence we pray, as our Saviour taught us.

All            Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory
for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the bread

The president breaks the consecrated bread.

Minister    We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All            Though we are many, we are one body, because we all share in one bread.

All sing    Glory, glory, glory to the Lord!
Glory to the Lord God almighty.
Glory, glory, glory to the Lord!
Glory to the Lord God almighty.
Who was, and is, and is to come.
Glory, glory, glory to the Lord!

Giving of Communion

Minister    God's holy gifts for God's holy people.

All            Jesus Christ is holy, Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Please wait to be directed forward to receive communion.

Communion solo Sing, my tongue, the glorious battle

Communion hymn

- 1        Be still, my soul: the Lord is on your side;
          bear patiently the cross of grief and pain;
          leave to your God to order and provide;
          in every change he faithful will remain.
          Be still, my soul: your best, your heavenly friend
          through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.
- 2        Be still, my soul: your God will undertake to guide the future as he has the past.
          Your hope, your confidence let nothing shake,
          all now mysterious shall be clear at last.
          Be still, my soul: the waves and winds still know
          his voice, who ruled them while he dwelt below.
- 3        Be still, my soul: when dearest friends depart
          and all is darkened in the vale of tears,
          then you shall better know his love, his heart,
          who comes to soothe your sorrow, calm your fears.
          Be still, my soul: for Jesus can repay
          from his own fullness all he takes away.
- 4        Be still, my soul: the hour is hastening on when we shall be for ever with the Lord,
          when disappointment, grief and fear are gone,
          sorrow forgotten, love's pure joy restored.
          Be still, my soul: when change and tears are past,
          all safe and blessed we shall meet at last.

Katharina Amalia Dorothea von Schlegel (1697–after 1768) translated by Jane Laurie Borthwick (1813–1897)

Prayer after Communion

Minister    God of all mercy,
              in this eucharist you have set aside our sins
              and given us your healing:
              grant that we who are made whole in Christ
              may bring that healing to this broken world,
              in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All        We thank you, Lord,
              that you have fed us in this sacrament,
              united us with Christ,
              and given us a foretaste

of the heavenly banquet prepared for all peoples.
Amen.

Notices

Hymn

- 1      Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee;
         take my moments and my days,
         let them flow in ceaseless praise.
- 2      Take my hands, and let them move
         at the impulse of thy love;
         take my feet, and let them be swift and beautiful for thee.
- 3      Take my voice, and let me sing
         always, only, for my King;
         take my lips, and let them be filled with messages from thee.
- 4      Take my silver and my gold;
         not a mite would I withhold;
         take my intellect, and use every power as thou shalt choose.
- 5      Take my will, and make it thine:
         it shall be no longer mine;
         take my heart: it is thine own;
         it shall be thy royal throne.
- 6      Take my love; my Lord, I pour
         at thy feet its treasure-store;
         take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for thee.

Frances Ridley Havergal (1836–1879)

Blessing

Minister      The peace of God,
                 which passes all understanding,
                 keep your hearts and minds
                 in the knowledge and love of God,
                 and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord;

and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.

All            Amen.

Dismissal

Minister    Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

All            In the name of Christ. Amen.
