Remembering and praying with and for the departed

November – our month of remembrance

November is traditionally our month of remembrance. Over the next few weeks our community will remember the brave men and women who sadly gave their lives to ensure that we could live in a better world.

We can only try and imagine the fears and worries those brave service men and women experienced and indeed continue to experience even today, when they are asked to go and serve in a dangerous war zone.

They will never be forgotten

Sadly, our history is littered with terrible wars and horrific conflicts; the tragic consequence of our fallen human nature. Yet at the centre of each one of those historic wars are young people who have been asked to do an incredibly dangerous job of protecting the rest of the country and safeguarding future generations. Some of those brave men and women would have been young parents who had to say goodbye to their partners and their children, in the full knowledge that they might never see them again.

Tragically, many of them did not come home.

That is a very powerful and sombre thought for all of us which can help ensure that we keep our promise: that they will never be forgotten.

All Souls' service at Barton Turf

The Church also uses the month of November to remember and pray for all of our loved ones who have departed this earth.

On 1st November 2026 at 15:00 at Barton Turf we shall hold our special annual All Souls' service. This is always a powerful and emotional service where we come together as a community to remember and pray for our loved ones who have gone before us to be with Christ. Everyone is welcome and departed loved ones are remembered and prayed for by name.

One Body, living and departed

We can pray for our departed loved ones because Jesus assured us that we are all part of one Body – both living and departed.

All the members of the Body care and pray for one another; whether we happen to be on this side of the grave or beyond it.

In Jesus, death and time do not separate us. Therefore, just as we pray for one another as we live and grow here on earth, it is natural and it is right to pray for those who have passed on to the next stage of their spiritual journey.

In the same way that we can be sure that our departed loved ones in Christ, along with all the saints, continue to pray and care for us here on earth.

Therefore, let us this month remember and pray for all those who have died, for those who sacrificed themselves so that we could live, and for our own loved ones who we miss each day.

Let us pray for them and let them pray for us.

Praised be Christ, Revd Ben.

A Roof Top Landing at the Vicarage

Two US airmen drop in on Horning in 1945

If you have been lucky enough to find a copy of Charles F Carrodus's book, 'A Norfolk Village in War Time, 1939–1945', published only a few months after the end of the war and packed with reminiscences, you will know what a little treasure it is!

Dropping in on the Vicarage

One such story was the tale of two US airmen, Raymond M. Bailey and Erwin A. Schilling, who were forced to bail out of their aircraft. One of them landed in power lines and the other on top of Horning Vicarage roof.

The descent resulted in the fuses being blown at the Vicarage and scaring Mrs Atkins, the Vicar's wife, who found herself completely enveloped by the parachute! She had been feeding the chickens at the time, and they too scurried away to safety!

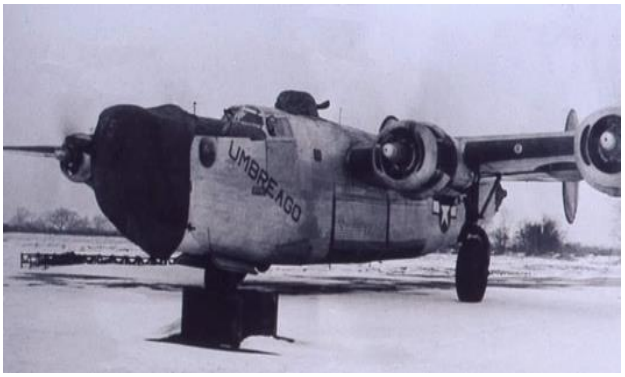

The Crew of The Umbreago, B24 Liberator
Bottom Row: Schilling - 5th right &
Bailey - 6th right

Both airmen believed the rest of the crew had bailed out. In fact, the pilots had stayed with the craft hoping to get it back to base and land.

The airmen were invited to tea at the vicarage and before leaving Raymond Bailey went over to the Church to give thanks for his deliverance and to pray for his comrades.

Piecing Together the Story

At this point the story has a rather 'Dad's Army' feel to it but on further investigation it proved to be far more poignant. Using the information in Carrodus' story and with the use of the internet and Facebook sites, namely The Eighth Airforce Historical Society and Stories of the 448th, a post was discovered from Seething Control Tower Museum. After contacting the museum, it became possible to uncover the whole story.

The Umbreago, B24 Liberator

The Last Flight of the Umbreago

On 15th February 1945, the Umbreago, together with an armada of other planes, was commanded to bomb Magdeburg oil refinery. She had on board 10 × 500lb RDX bombs. The day previously, following concerns over the catch where the life raft was stored, it had been inspected and passed as safe. However, shortly after take-off the life raft doors were released and the raft appeared to blow out of the plane and wrap itself around both stabilisers, causing the pilot to lose full control of the plane.

They managed to jettison the bombs over the Channel, but it became clear that they would not be able to land the plane. The order was given to bail out at 3,000ft. The pilot, Harlyn H. Schroeder and his co-pilot, Delwin D. Roorda, remained behind to steady the plane as did the engineer, Edward L. Vetterneck, who held the controls to enable both pilots to release themselves from their harnesses, before he too also jumped.

Parachuting away from the plane, Vetterneck witnessed the tail break away and the plane plummet to the ground. The plane crashed at Hall Farm, Elsing, near Attlebridge, killing both pilots. It was salvaged the next day and further wreckage was recovered in October 1982 by Norfolk and Suffolk Aviation Group

Both pilots were posthumously awarded the DFC and Vetterneck, who stayed on board almost to the last minute, was also recommended for the award but never received the medal.

Raymond Bailey Remembers

Mr & Mrs Bailey returned to visit his old air base at Seething on 4th October 1998. He left with them his full account of that day. He mentions that a local farmer came to his assistance but found Bailey well – it had been a perfect landing. Both airmen, after having had tea with the Vicar's wife ('an elderly lady of about 70'), obtained directions to catch a bus back to Norwich! On the way he 'dropped my parachute and harness off at a quaint little old house'. He recalled that the vicarage was in 'this little town called Homin, Upper Street'.

Why Every Memory Matters

Carrodus' account contained sufficient information to allow Horning Memory Keepers to flesh out this event, illustrating the importance of recording those memories – however small!

Sgt Raymond Bailey would never have forgotten Horning and in this month of Remembrance it is particularly apt that we recall his story and that of his crew.

The launch of Horning Memory Keepers

A village archive is born — and you can help

On Saturday 17th October in the village hall Horning Memory Keepers (HMK) was formally launched. We were honoured to be joined by Norfolk Deputy Lieutenant Sir Norman Lamb.

Why Horning needs an archive

Acting Chairman, Thea Boshier, welcomed everyone and showed a PowerPoint presentation which explained the purpose of HMK, the need for an historic archive in the village, how much has been achieved so far by the steering group, what are our next steps, and how Horning residents can be involved by sharing their own historic material.

Thank you to our supporters

Thea thanked the organisations that have contributed to our fund-raising endeavours or offered support in other ways, including Horning Boat Show Community Fund, Norfolk County Council, North Norfolk District Council, Horning Parish Council, Wroxham & Hoveton Lions.

The HMK steering committee
(Not all were present due to ill health)

What happens next

Those present heard of our plans to form an historic archive, establish a website, and include at a later date further presentations and publications.

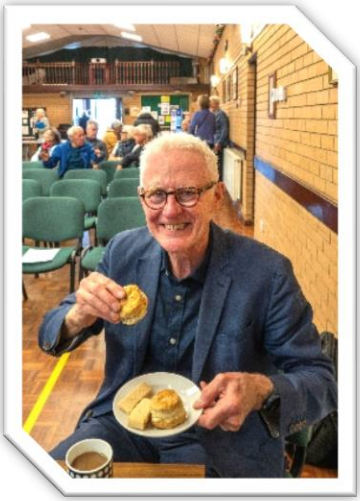

We are not yet quite at the stage to accept historic material to be archived, but everyone interested is invited to join HMK, and membership forms were supplied today.

We shall encourage Horning residents to share their memories of Horning as well as submitting material to be included in the archive. We shall include opportunities for an oral historical archive and encourage young people to interview older relatives.

As the village hall microphone was not working, we were grateful to Kathy and Chris Nicholson for providing a portable microphone at short notice.

A few of those at the launch offered personal comments about their memories of Horning suggesting further sources of historic information.

Sir Norman gave encouraging comments and congratulated Thea and the steering group for all that has been achieved so far.

Sir Norman Lamb DL certainly enjoyed Trish's scones!

Horning's Mobile Signal

Why the bars vanished – and what's being done about it

How we got here

Many of us have spent the past year wandering round the garden, phone held aloft, in search of a single bar. The story behind it is a curious one. Our signal used to come from a mast on the MOD site at the Neatishead radar museum. When a new radar was installed in the dome, the phone mast was found to interfere with it and had to go, so Horning's signal all but disappeared.

A temporary mast restored a service while a new permanent mast was built. The permanent mast is now up and the temporary one has gone – yet many residents say their signal has not improved, possibly worse than before.

Pressing for answers

Our District and County Councillor, Adam Varley, has taken up the issue on residents' behalf. Writing to Projex Cellular, the company behind the new mast, asking whether it is fully working, how its performance is being monitored, whether the results will be shared with the community, and what will be done if coverage has got worse.

The office of our MP, Steff Aquarone, has also become involved. Virgin Media O2 has reviewed the site with its engineers and say its network data shows no drop in service since the permanent mast came online. That doesn't match what many of us are experiencing, so the questions continue. A meeting is now being arranged between Virgin Media O2, Cllr Varley and the MP's office, with Norfolk County Council possibly joining too.

There may be useful evidence close to hand, too. Norfolk County Council has used a clever survey by Streetwave, with signal-measuring equipment fitted to bin lorries. Comparing readings from before, during and after the temporary mast could help show exactly what has changed.

Another possibility is to use "small cells" – shoebox-sized units fixed to lamp posts that boost signal for around 150 metres, already used to fill blackspots in Cambridgeshire.

How you can help

Real examples are what will make the difference, and Virgin Media O2 has asked for them. If your signal is poor, please note:

- Where it happens – street name and postcode
- Whether it affects calls, texts, internet data or indoor coverage

Send the details to Cllr Varley at adam.varley@north-norfolk.gov.uk

We'll bring you a further update once the meeting has taken place. Here's hoping it won't be long before we can simply pick up the phone – and get through first time.

Chaos at the North Pole

Pssst! It's me, one of Santa's elves, reporting for duty from the North Pole! We're getting ready for our visit to Horning, although I'm not sure we'll be ready in time. It's absolute chaos!

One elf got stuck up the chimney (he's been promoted to Father Christmas's brush cleaner), another has eaten the reindeer's emergency carrots, and our Head Elf has been caught selling Santa's presents on eBay. He says he was just trying to raise money – for… elf-esteem classes!

Fast-Tracked Mince Pies

The Elf (large – with big ears and trying to look busy) and the Fairy (small – with second-hand wand eating the Quality Street) are looking forward to seeing you all. The children are welcome, the grown-ups are tolerated, and anyone bringing mince pies will be fast-tracked to the top of the nice list!

So, dear parents and grandparents, please do bring your children along to the village grotto to meet Santa, enjoy some Christmas magic and have a jolly good time.

Ho, Ho… Creak!

We promise festive fun, Christmas cheer and absolutely no reindeer droppings on the carpet (we hope). Santa is polishing his boots, checking his list and practising his ho, ho, ho! Although, between you and me, it sounds suspiciously like his knees creaking.

Oh! And there will be lots of stalls offering the chance to buy some unique Christmas presents by Norfolk Crafters

Final Craft Fair of the Year

The final Craft Fair of this year will take place on Sunday 22nd November 10:00 to 16:00 at the usual location, Hoveton Village Hall, Stalham Road, Hoveton, NR12 8DU. Parking is free and refreshments will be available.

Lions at The Forum

In October the Club also attended a Lions event in The Forum, Norwich, to publicise Lions Clubs activities in this country and abroad. There were several stalls to visit and see what the Lions family does in and around your community.

Among them was Lions Child Sight UK, which offers free eye screening for young children in schools. A quick camera check takes just seconds, with no eye drops or contact, and can spot problems such as a "lazy eye" early. Find out more at www.lionschildsightuk.co.uk

Santa's Sleigh in Horning

Our Santa's Sleigh will be putting in an early appearance at Horning Village Hall

Saturday 21st November
11:00 to 16:00
to celebrate the Hub Christmas Fayre & Grotto event

Together we can do even more.

Over 150 members – and still growing

Membership of the u3a in Wroxham and District is increasing and we now have over 150 members.

GYBSON'S CONDUIT MONUMENT

Around the Groups

The history group had their 'Blue Plaque Walk' in Norwich, which was packed with historical details. Most of us (even those of us Norfolk born and bred) had never seen the scheduled monument, built in 1577, called Gybson's Conduit Monument hidden along a path off Westwick Street.

The book group read a book called The Clear Light of Day by Anita Desai, set in Delhi, from the 1930s to the 1980s and the poetry group read poems about the supernatural.

Example of the work of a member of the art group, which meets at the Hub in Wroxham, every other week.

Come Along and Meet Us

Apart from our many other interest groups we have our general meeting monthly at Hoveton Village Hall, where we have a speaker and tea and biscuits; if you want to know what we are about and meet some of the members, do come along, it's on the 3rd Tuesday of each month doors open at 14:00

£2.00 for members and £3.00 for visitors.

Next 3 general meetings:

17th November – The History of Radar at Neatishead – Ian Dormer

Peter Wilson

Remembering a much-loved Horning character

It was with great sadness that on the 10th August we announced the death of Edgar Peter Wilson, a Father, Step Father, Father-in-law and much-loved Grandfather to Eve, Emily, Stephen, Joe, Harry, George, Tabitha and Abigail.

Born on the 17th July 1943 in Tarporley, Peter met his future wife, Margaret Goodall of Abbot Road, after responding to a lonely-hearts advert in the Eastern Daily Press. As became typical of his sense of humour, to make himself easily recognisable, he marked the occasion by wearing an actual banana in his jacket's top pocket!

"Big in Books"

Peter was working as a pig farmer when he moved to Horning to be with Margaret. Growing weary of the hard work and early starts, he decided, in his words, to become "big in books" and took a job working for a publishing house in Norwich. His working life became much easier and the Grandchildren benefitted from a never-ending supply of new books! In retirement, Chatterbox, an audible newspaper for the blind, benefitted from his love of the written word when he volunteered there as an editor.

A Love of Village Life

Peter fell in love with village life and was a firm supporter of Horning's high street shops and pubs. He could be seen out and about every morning walking the dogs, Sandy, Harvey and latterly Jack, making a point of stopping and getting to know other dog lovers along the way.

Roses, Dahlias and Wacky T-shirts

Following Margaret's death in 2012 he remained in the home he had made with her, finding comfort in the garden, in particular in his love of roses and dahlias, cooking, reading and the many friends he had made. He will be remembered fondly for his love of wacky t-shirts with vibrant colours and of course a love of all objects depicting bananas and also Snoopy.

Family and friends meant everything to him and he was immensely proud of his Grandchildren's achievements and loved to hear about their lives and exploits.

He will be sorely missed by all.

President's Day

The cricket season has come to an end and we celebrated with our annual President's Day, inviting guest players, retired players as well as villagers and junior members to form teams to compete on the day for the 2026 title!

A new winner was crowned, Doug, our president, taking the crown from Rory during a fantastic day where we made our best efforts to empty the bar and freezer! Thank you to everyone who came along to support the club one final time this year.

Beyond all Expectations

We had many highs (and a few lows!) on the pitch in 2026 but the future is certainly bright for our village club. Lots of new juniors are enjoying their cricket, with our under 9 and under 11 sections growing beyond all expectations! Several of our older juniors made their senior debut with great success.

All Star Cricket for ages 5–8 has had a wonderful year and will be running again through 2027 – look out for announcements once dates are set.

Presentation Dinner

We now look ahead to the annual Presentation Dinner on November 22nd hosted by The Lodge, Salhouse. Approximately 100 guests will be seated to hear speeches, congratulate trophy winners and of course enjoy a delicious meal.

Advertising and Sponsorship

Preparations are already underway for the 2027 season. Fixture books go to print in January, so if you would like to be included by way of advertising your business please get in touch. A full colour, full page advert is available and our books are distributed around Norfolk at the start of the season.

Sponsorship packages come in many forms, with lots of advertising in print, around our grounds and on all social media platforms – just get in touch for information. abwcc.events@gmail.com

Escape to Britain

When Nazi Germany began its occupation of Czechoslovakia in March 1939 a great many young men escaped, firstly to Poland and then to France, but as each country fell to the Nazis the Czechs and Slovaks found themselves on the run but eager to fight.

To escape some made their way to the Middle East and North Africa to find transports to finally reach Britain. Among them were 2,000 airmen who had served in the Czechoslovakian Air Force and now offered their service to the RAF.

Defending East Anglia

Three squadrons at nearby RAF Coltishall had Czech and Slovak pilots: 310 and 312 Squadrons were completely Czechoslovak and flew day fighters on air defence and escort duties, whilst 68 Squadron (night fighters) had one complete flight of Czechoslovak pilots flying Beaufighters and Mosquitos to defend East Anglia, guided by the controllers here at RAF Neatishead.

Women in uniform

As well as airmen, many Czechoslovakian women had also escaped and made their way to Britain, where they volunteered to join the armed forces. Many joined the Women's Auxiliary Air Force, serving in roles such as radio and radar operators, nurses and chefs.

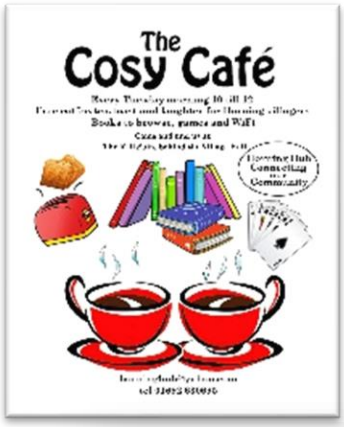

An unwelcome homecoming

After the war those that returned to their liberated home country from the West now found they were unwelcome after a Communist-backed coup, facing imprisonment, torture and death.

A new exhibition

We're proud to feature this story in a new temporary exhibition at the RAF Air Defence Radar Museum, in place until the museum closes for the winter on the 14th November, provided by Filip Procházka of the 276 (reenacted) RAF Squadron Living History Group, and has been created to remember the sacrifices made by the Czechoslovak people in service to the RAF.

This means that the Cosy Café will be able to continue for at least two more years. ('It has been a life saver during difficult times,' said one of our regulars.)

If you don't already know, drinks, hot buttered toast, biscuits and other seasonal treats are on offer free of charge. There is also an opportunity to hone your IT skills with friendly tuition from Holli every first Tuesday of the month.

Knitting and crocheting continues to be a great success, and we encourage you to make further suggestions and share ideas for other activities.

NB It is due to a leap of faith by the Horning Boat Show Community Fund three years ago that Horning Hub and the Cosy Café exists. We know that there are many in our community who are grateful to them, the hard work their committee puts into the Boat Show and to repeat 'it has been a life saver' for some.

Our AGM takes place on Tuesday 27th October at 10:30 and might already have happened by the time you receive this edition. If you receive an early edition of the Reach, you are still very welcome to join us. Did someone mention cake?

CPR and Defibrillator training on Saturday 31st October 10:30–11:30 might also have taken place. Again, if you receive an early edition of the Reach and are interested in joining us, please get in touch as soon as possible and we will see if we can accommodate you.

Come and Sing with Us

With two singing sessions under our belts and two more to go… What fun Kathy makes it for us all! Why not come along and join us on 11th and 18th November in Leeds Way Community Centre as we rehearse songs to entertain you at our Christmas Fayre on Saturday 21st November 11:00 to 16:00

Share the Christmas Cheer

The years are getting shorter somehow – how can it possibly be less than eight weeks until Christmas? Still, the Hub has it covered for you.

If you have young children in your family, bring them along: Santa has dusted off the sleigh early and will be ready to take details from their Christmas wish list. It is only £3 for a chat with Santa and to receive a gift. There will also be free face painting and lots of lovely crafts.

It would be helpful if you brought cash along for the grotto and the tombola – the latter raises funds for the Horning Hub.

There will be great gifts and cards on offer including Steph's imaginative crafts, Carol's cards, Fiona's silverware, Jo's sea glass artwork, Pat's popular beading, Malcom's bird boxes and planters (he almost sold out last time), Linda's unique feather paintings, and much more.

Then there are Paul's Pies and a first-time appearance at the Hub Christmas Fayre by Katie and her yummy cakes (Gail and I travel miles for some of these).

The Windmill Café will also be serving their tasty bacon rolls and other treats whilst in the process helping to raise money for the village hall.

More to Look Forward To

The Hub Team has been making plans for next year, so you are among the first to hear that we are hoping to hold another Yard Sale in early May. Please get in touch if you are interested.

and

There will be a tea party in the summer for Friends of the Hub.

and

We are also planning another community gathering on Benet's Green in August. It has become something of a tradition. We learned a few lessons from this year and hope to gather and start the music earlier next time.

We welcome your suggestions and, wherever possible, will make them happen!

Gardening Diary – November

Time to tuck up the garden, plant tulips and look after the birds

November comes in quietly, with low sun slanting through bare branches and the scent of woodsmoke on damp air. Beech and field maple hold their last gold, spindle berries glow pink in the hedgerow, and robins sing from the holly as the garden draws breath for winter.

Wrap Up and Dig In

November is the month to protect and prepare. Frost, wind and rain arrive in earnest, so wrap containers, firm in anything rocked loose and shelter what is tender. It is also the start of bare-root season, when roses, fruit trees and soft fruit bushes are at their cheapest and settle quickest. Tulips finally go in too, as colder soil helps keep disease at bay, and garden birds begin to rely on our feeders as natural food runs short.

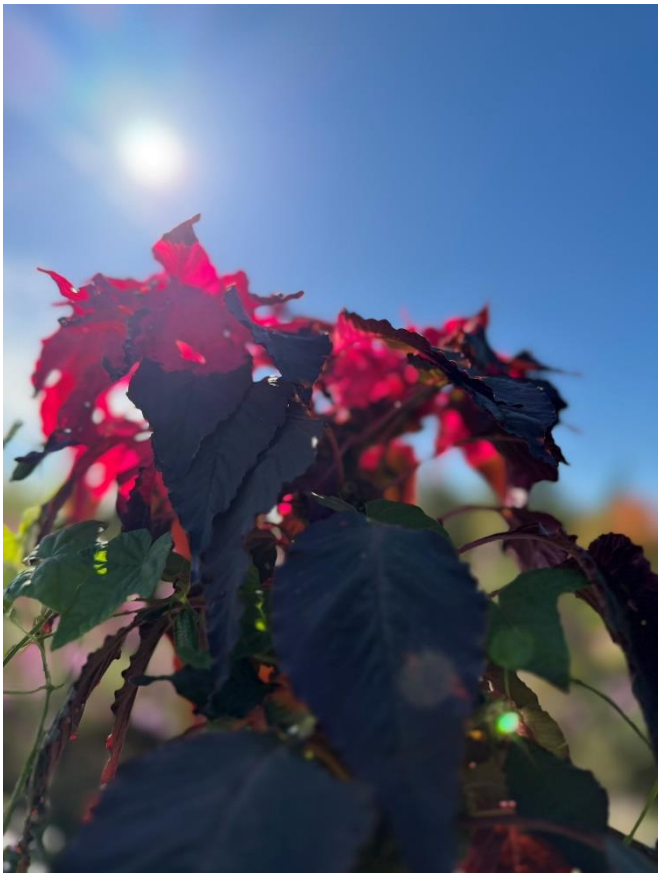

Photo
Autumn Sun

Things to do:

1. Plant tulip bulbs for a bright spring show.
   Plant at three times the bulb's own depth, in sun and free-draining soil.
2. Plant bare-root roses, fruit trees and bushes.
3. Wrap outdoor pots in bubble wrap or hessian.
4. Prune tall roses by a third to stop wind rock.
5. Fit grease bands to apple and pear tree trunks.
6. Net cabbages, kale and sprouts against pigeons.
7. Check bonfires for hedgehogs before lighting.
8. Top up bird feeders and put out fresh water.
9. Lift parsnips after frost for a sweeter flavour.
10. Insulate outdoor taps and drain down hosepipes.

The garden may be falling quiet, but every bulb planted and bird fed now is a kindness repaid when the days lengthen.

Happy gardening!

Hello Dolly!! Do you hear the people sing?

It's been The Longest Time since our last show, and we think it's about time we stepped back into the spotlight! We are planning a couple of nights celebrating all things Musical on 26 & 27th March 2027, so whether you're ready to Defy Gravity, want to Seize the Day, or simply fancy being In the Room Where It Happens, we'd love to hear from you!

Rather Stay Out of the Spotlight?

Or maybe you'd rather stay out of the spotlight and work your magic behind the scenes — helping with costumes, props, sets, lighting, sound, backstage organisation or any of the other million things that make a show Wicked.

Everyone Welcome, On Stage or Off

No experience necessary, no audition nerves required, and absolutely everyone is welcome — on stage or off!

Rehearsals will be on Thursdays and we will be doing some workshops in the lead up!!

So, Musical theatre lovers, assemble! Because after all, there's no business like show business! Let's dust off those scripts, warm up those vocal cords, dig out the jazz hands and prove that the show must go on!

Sea Palling Independent Lifeboat

From summer fundraising to Santa's arrival by sea

A busy summer of fundraising

The last few months have been a busy time for our volunteer crew.

Our annual lifeboat day in August was a huge success. We thank our supporters and sponsors, without whom the day just couldn't happen. Thanks also to Golden Beach Holiday Park and Hickling Barn for their fundraising support – vital to keeping our independent lifeboat operational.

Sunday 6th December at 15:00 will see Santa arrive in Sea Palling from the North Sea and be delivered to the Lifeboat Tavern for an afternoon of fun and festivities. We hope to see you there.

We will sign out now, and wish you a safe few months and hope to see you soon.

Chancel and vestry done – now it's the tower's turn

Renovation work on the chancel and vestry has now been completed, so the scaffolding should be taken down soon.

The work now starts on the tower to make it safe for years to come.

Scaffolding has gone up, and care must be taken whilst walking round the base of the tower.

NANCY OLDFIELD

Thank you for supporting the Book Stall on the Wall

More Than £2,000 Raised

On behalf of everyone at The Nancy Oldfield Trust, thank you to all who supported the Book Stall on the Wall in 2026. While the final total is still to be confirmed, we understand that the stall has raised more than £2,000, which is an outstanding achievement.

We are especially grateful to Thea and Peter for the considerable time and effort they have devoted to this initiative.

Where Your Money Goes

Part of the money raised will be added to our bursary fund, helping people for whom cost would otherwise be a barrier to accessing the Broads.

The remaining funds will support our appeal for a replacement safety boat, expected to cost around £40,000. Although this is a significant target, the boat is essential equipment and is used almost every day at the Trust.

Thank you to everyone who donated or bought books this year. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

MUSIC QUIZ

IN HORNING VILLAGE HALL

WEDNESDAY 2ND DECEMBER

DOORS OPEN 6.30PM

£5 PER PERSON

Bar selling wine and beer

GREAT MUSIC. GREAT FUN. GREAT NIGHT OUT!

Get your team together!

Thank You, Horning!

A huge thank you to all of you who have given money to support the village hall; the Trustees are overwhelmed by the support given by the village; to date we have raised a little over £7500 with promises of another £3000. This is an amazing result for a relatively small village and the Trustees of the Village Hall are delighted with the support and also to know that the village is with them in their attempts to maintain and improve the facilities at the hall.

A Registered Charity Since 1963

While talking about Trustees, are you aware that Horning Village Hall is a Registered Charity and was granted its certificate of registration way back in May 1963. – that is why our charity number 303984 is made up of so few numbers! We are not funded by the Parish Council although they do help us on occasion and they do support events at the Village Hall to the benefit of the village at large. We rely solely on bookings of the hall and fundraising events such as the Murder Mystery Evening in order to bridge the gap between fees from hiring the hall and the overall cost of maintaining and running it.

Solar Power and Fresh Air

We have applied for a grant from the Sheringham Shoal Community Fund to cover the bulk of the cost of the solar system and the air conditioning. One of the problems of the village hall is that it does not have any natural ventilation other than the entrance and exit doors. The installation of air conditioning in the hall, therefore, needs not only to keep and everybody warm or cool, but also to make sure that there is an adequate air change within the hall: our proposed new system has been designed to take account of this.

Ramp Renovated

The eagle eyed among you will have noticed that we have renovated the disabled ramp at the rear of the Mill Suite and by doing so this brings to an end the works commissioned as a result of grants from the Boshier-Hinton Foundation, the Horning Boat Show, Wroxham Lions and the National Lottery Community Fund. A huge thank you to these organizations for their support.

26 November at 7:00 PM is our usual monthly BINGO

Horning Village Hall

The Director “Wot Dun It!”

Thank you to all who booked a ticket for the MME on the 3rd October, and also to HATS for all the hard work in making such an amazing experience possible.

Of course, it was the Director “wot dun it!”

But along the way to that conclusion, 60 supporters sat down to a 3-course dinner with wine ably catered by Louise Parker with the Village Hall Volunteers and Trustees providing the service and support.

But more importantly, you the village supported us and we raised over £900 in the process.

Horning Village Hall

New Blood Needed

All these events are made possible by a small group of people for the enjoyment of the whole of the village.

As another year ends, this little group of people is another year older.

We need new blood on the village hall committee.

The amount of work involved can be variable and organised to suit individual circumstances. If you have basic computer skills or you like organising stuff or would just like to join a jolly team of people who are seeking to maintain a valuable asset of the village, then why not get in touch with our Secretary:

Christine Charles christinecharles170@gmail.com and come along and see for yourself what we do. While we have a circle of regular helpers, we need to strengthen our committee. The next few years should be quite exciting in the life of the Horning Village Hall and this is an opportunity to help plan and be part of the future of the village hall for the next generation.
