💍 Weddings at the Parish of South Gillingham

A sacred and beautiful beginning to your life together

Your wedding day is one of the most meaningful moments of your life — a day filled with joy, love, and the promise of a shared future. At the Parish of South Gillingham , we are honoured to offer a sacred space where you can begin your marriage journey in the presence of God and your loved ones.

Whether you're drawn to the historic beauty of our traditional church buildings or the bright, contemporary feel of our newer worship spaces, our parish offers a range of beautiful venues to suit your vision.

🏠 What We Offer

We aim to make your wedding both spiritually meaningful and beautifully memorable.

Our wedding services include:

- Guidance and support from our clergy and wedding coordinator
- Pre-marital preparation and pastoral care
- Use of the church for your ceremony and rehearsal
- Music options (organist, choir, or your own musicians)
- Flexible decoration and photography opportunities
- Optional use of parish halls for receptions or gatherings where available

✝ A Wedding Rooted in Faith

A church wedding is more than a venue — it's a celebration of love grounded in faith.
By choosing to marry in Parish of South Gillingham, you are inviting God's blessing on your marriage and becoming part of a community that will continue to pray for and support you.

We welcome couples from our parish and beyond who wish to celebrate their marriage in a sacred Christian setting. If you are new to church or exploring faith, our clergy will be delighted to meet with you and guide you through the process.
