“I arrived in Cornwall just a few weeks ago and am very excited to be called to the role of Archdeacon of Bodmin. One of the things I have been doing since I arrived is use this prayer diary to pray for the churches around the diocese. I love maps and have been taking time to look up where the places are, see who the clergy are and research the things that an archdeacon needs to know, like which benefice and which deanery each church is set in. So, for me it has been a good way of increasing my knowledge of this beautiful place in which I find myself.

But of course, the true purpose of this prayer diary is to help us to pray for the communities, churches and people of this diocese. Prayer makes a real difference. James wrote, ‘The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective’. In this context a righteous person isn’t some extra holy expert on prayer, but simply someone who trusts in the death and resurrection of Jesus to put them right with God. If you love and try to follow Jesus, YOUR prayers are powerful and effective. That doesn’t mean God will answer every single one of your prayers in the way you want, but it does mean that when, on a particular Monday morning, or Tuesday afternoon, or whenever it is, you ask God to bless the people of some far-flung part of the Diocese of Truro, he hears you and the people of that place are blessed because you prayed. Your prayers make a difference to people. Our prayers are effective not because we are powerful pray-ers but because we pray to a powerful God.
This prayer diary covers Christmas: the best gift we can give anyone is our prayers.
I commend this prayer diary to you and it is my prayer that God will fill all of us afresh with his Holy Spirit and he will ever form us into a people of prayer who are a blessing to Cornwall, the Isles of Scilly, and Virginstow and St Giles on the Heath.”

THE REVD DR HELEN WILLIAMS
ARCHDEACON DESIGNATE OF BODMIN

SUNDAY 6 DECEMBER CHILDREN IN OUR SCHOOLS

Loving God, as our schools prepare for Christmas, we give thanks for the joy, creativity and excitement this season brings. As festive crafts are made, performances rehearsed and celebrations enjoyed, help us keep our focus on You and the wonderful story of Christ's birth.
We give thanks for our children, staff, families and communities, and for the opportunities we have to learn, serve and flourish together. As we reflect on the true meaning of Christmas, may our words and actions show kindness, generosity and compassion to all. Help us remember the wonderful gift of Your Son, Jesus Christ, whose birth brings hope, peace, joy and love to the world. Amen.

Prayer by Samantha Jones, Chief Executive Officer, The Rainbow Multi Academy Trust.

SUNDAY 13 DECEMBER CHRISTMAS PREPARATIONS

Dear Lord, may the hope of this season centred in the Christ-child illumine and bless all struggling with lack of hope and opportunity. As we prepare for Christmas, we pray for those who are homeless and for the organisations seeking to support them - remembering especially St Petrocs and Harbour Housing. We pray for outreach workers, support workers, therapists, and chaplains as they support some of the most vulnerable people in our society. We also pray for those addicted to drugs and alcohol, for those sofa surfing, for victims of abuse, and vulnerable people who are victims of cuckooing. May we do all we can to bring Christ's light and life into the lives of others this season. Amen.

SUNDAY 20 DECEMBER CHRISTMAS PRAYER

Loving God, whose eternal Word became flesh and was born among us in the humility of a child: as we rejoice in the birth of Your Son Jesus Christ, may Your Church in the Diocese of Truro proclaim His love with joy, welcome all who come to hear the story of His birth, draw near to those who are lonely, poor, grieving or in need, and kindle in us a deep desire that every person throughout Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly, and in our parishes of St Giles in the Heath and Virginstow in Devon, may encounter Jesus, know the love of God, and discover in Him hope, peace and belonging this Christmas.
We ask this in the name of Emmanuel, God with us, now and always. Amen.
