BENEFICE

Welcome to our services of Remembrance, across the Benefice. Today we hold in prayer all who suffer, as a result of war, past and present and we pray that God's Peace may ultimately triumph.

This Monday evening, we will be holding our Benefice Confirmation Service at St Mark's, Dolphinholme with Bishop Jill. The service begins at 7pm. Please try to come along, so that our candidates feel well supported and please hold Nancy, Harry, Hattie, Thomas, Amy, William and Harry in your prayers as they take this next step.

This week sees the Diocese celebrating its Centenary, with a special service in Blackburn Cathedral on Thursday 12th, which you can follow live on YouTube. There will also be a week of focused input on Radio Lancashire, during the 10am programme. On Friday, the focus will be rural and there will be opportunity to hear interviews with Over Wyresdale parishioners, recorded at the Harvest Supper. Cindy will also be live on air, so please pray that she makes more sense than usual! Our input is likely to be from around 11am.

Grateful thanks to Stephen Potter for leading our worship last Sunday.

Church cleaning

In order to try and speed up our cleaning sessions, we would very much like a second hoover. If you know of one that is surplus to requirements and its owner would be willing to donate it, we'd love to have it! The main requirements are that we need one with its attachments and it must have good suction!
After Christmas we hope to get a cleaning rota in action, if you'd like to join us, please tell Janet. Many hands make light work!!
